WILLIAMSTOWN.

Coming! The always popular New Chelsea Dramatic company, presenting the three-act drama, "The Gypsy," Grange hall, Williamstown, Saturday evening, Nov. 30. Social dance after the play. Good music. Popular prices.

At a recent sale at St. Peter's hall in Rutland, a handkerchief donated by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson netted $68; one given by Mrs. William Sulzer $37, and one by Mrs. A. M. Fletcher $20.

Rev. F. W. Hazen of Falmouth, Mass., has accepted a call from the Congregational church at Johnson. Mr. Hazen's father, Rev. Austin Hazen, was a former minister in Johnson.

While Enos LaFluer and William Houghton were working in the woods in Wolcott Saturday, the axe of the latter slipped and struck Mr. LaFluer in the back of the hand, cutting a deep gash, requiring 12 stitches to close the wound.

The Vermont Marble company of Proctor, as usual at Thanksgiving, distributed turkeys, cranberries and sweet potatoes to all married employees at Proctor, West Rutland, Center Rutland, Danbury, Middlebury, Brandon and Florence.

One of the barns belonging to the Addison County Agricultural society and used for housing race horses during the Middlebury fair, was burned to the ground Wednesday night, with a loss of $1,000. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Hubbard celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Woodstock the evening of November 27. A purse of $45.00 in gold was given them by the friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard first lived in Sherburne, then in Bridgewater and for the past 17 years have resided in Woodstock.

Morris Carey, the young son of William Carey of Stowe, has admitted having a share in the attempt to blackball H. C. McMahon by placing a threatening letter under the door of the Miles McMahon & Son's store Friday night.

The boy is young and not forward mentally and it is thought he must have had help in planning the scheme. He was taken to Morrisville Tuesday to be questioned by the state's attorney.

Thomas Ward of Moretown was taken to the state hospital for the insane at Waterbury, Wednesday. Ward is the man who is said to have been attacked by Mr. Lynch, a Moretown selectman, which caused his mental trouble, but it has developed that for a long time Mr. Ward had not been right mentally, that he was not by Mr. Lynch caused the insanity and that he probably was insane when he struck Mr. Lynch, as the latter alleges.

Hedro Damannaty, manager of the troupe of Arab acrobats in "The Bohemian Girl," scheduled for Barre, but which had to be cancelled on account of the smallpox quarantine, was arrested in Montreal on a charge of assault on a 14-year-old boy in his employ.

The youth was taken to the Royal Victoria hospital for treatment and Damannaty was released on bail of $1,000. A physician who examined the alleged victim found him in a bad condition and covered with bruises, said to have resulted from beatings which he had received at the hands of the manager when he failed to do his act at rehearsals, which were held under the stage. Damannaty denied that he had abused the child.

Flagged Train With Shirt. Tearing his shirt from his back, an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but my four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at the Red Cross Pharmacy—Adv.

but the crowd cheered, as with burned hands, he held up a small round box, "Fellows!" he shouted, "this Bucklen's Arnica Salve I hold, has everything but a burn." Right! also for boils, ulcers, sore, pinches, corns, sprains, bruises. Surest pile cure. It subdues inflammation, kills pain. Only 25 cents at the Red Cross Pharmacy—Adv.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Monday Night "A Butterfly on the Wheel" at Barre Opera House.

"A Butterfly on the Wheel" which has been played with wonderful success both in London and New York, will be the attraction at the opera house next fact, however, was the situation last night, when too many were suffered to listen, and only such characters as Ralph Harding (St. John), Jeff Norton (do you recognize our hero?), Billy Beveridge, Thomas Beveridge and other Beveridges walloped through the lines of "The Angelus." It was the botcher at his worst.

Since the story contained only the essence of simplicity and the non-compelling call of an imaginary "butterfly" it will not bear the repetition that its exclusive title might ordinarily deserve. Suffice it that Ralph Harding was an ugly customer, and when he announced his threat to "do" the redoubtable Jeff Norton, one had only to hard back to Lizzie, the Beautiful Black Model, sinking slowly into the clutches of her rival, to realize the rare flavor of home-made drama. And there was Honest Jeff, and happy little Sheila Beveridge, at length to be reunited to her small-town hero, Silly Billy Beveridge, and Tot Travers. But why shall we brook criticism, if all will charitably insist that "The Angelus" be relegated to the ten and twenties, whence it must have sprung?

THE TIMES will publish Warts, Les and Found, For Sale To Let, etc., short advertisements at the rate of four lines for twenty-five cents for the first insertion and five cents for each subsequent insertion.
